

Preliminary program of the Winter School in Prague February 5 – 9, 2006

Location:

University of Economics (VŠE)
W. Churchill Square 4 – Prague 3
Rajska budova
Meeting room number 337

Feb 5, Monday

Morning: 9,30 - 12,30

Welcome and lecture by prof. František Janouch (Royal Institute of Technology, Stockholm, Charter 77 Foundation, Prague)

Afternoon: 13,30 – 15,30

Lecture by prof. Stefan Schleicher (University of Graz)

"Perspectives of the European energy systems (Restructuring energy systems)"

Feb 6, Tuesday

Morning: 9,30 - 12,30

Lecture by Mgr. Milan Ščasný (Charles University of Prague, Environment Centre)
"Definition and quantification of external costs (focused on application of the ExternE method)"

Afternoon: 13,30 - 15,30

Lecture by prof. Reinhard Haas (Technical University of Vienna)

"European electricity markets, introduction in Electricity Economics (Introduction in Electricity Economics, Liberalised electricity markets in Europe: new opportunities and threats)"

Feb 7, Wednesday

Morning: 9,00 - 12,00

Lecture by prof. Wolfgang Streicher (Technical University of Graz)

"Energy and CO₂-emission savings in buildings;

Energy Efficiency, Renewables energy carriers and New technologies in buildings"

Afternoon: visit of the "high-voltage" laboratory in the Czech Technical University in Prague

Feb 8, Thursday

Morning: 9,30 - 12,30

Lecture by doc. Jaroslav Knápek (Czech Technical University in Prague)

"System aspects of renewable energy sources and promotion schemes"

Afternoon: free time for students

Feb 9, Friday

Excursion led by doc. Jaroslav Knápek departure: 9,30 (by bus, from W. Churchill Square)

two small hydropower plants: Libčice nad Vltavou, Měřejovice